

Leadership Scholarship

The Excellence in Education Foundation for PGCPS, Inc. (EEF-PGCPS) celebrates exemplary leadership and recognizes the importance of assisting outstanding young leaders to continue such activism. The EEF-PGCPS wishes to promote the qualities exemplified in excellent leadership among students within the county who demonstrate activism in the cause of freedom, democratic values, and constitutional principles. Therefore, the EEF-PGCPS has established the Leadership Scholarship for twelve (12) graduating seniors who best personify “exemplary leadership.”

The Leadership Scholarship will award $3,500 each to twelve (12) PGCPS graduating seniors who will continue their education at a post-secondary institution.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Must be a current PGCPS student.
- Student must have been in attendance without interruption from ninth to twelfth grade in PGCPS.
- Student must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 for all high school course work.
- Student must be well-rounded and have participated in at least two years of activities in his or her respective high school either in the classroom, school or community demonstrating leadership during his or her academic career, such as the Student Government Association, Honor Society, etc.
- Student must include a minimum of three letters of recommendation from previous teachers, administrators, or sponsors of leadership activities.
- Student must submit a completed application, an essay, and an “official” transcript of grades must be a sealed document and include the student’s most recently received grades.
- Student must be accepted into a post-secondary institution.

ESSAY

Student must write a narrative – minimum of 500 words – describing their background, educational and career objectives, and scope of participation in leadership activities, which promote the cause of freedom, democratic values, and constitutional principles.

- Include leadership and achievements in responsible non-profit or political organizations, clubs, community activities, expository activities such as newspaper columns, speeches, debates, etc.
- Examples of how the student has helped to make a discernible difference at his or her school(s) of attendance that has helped change the political environment, has persuaded others or gained a following, or has otherwise distinctively advanced the cause of freedom, democratic values, and constitutional principles should be stressed and will be of determining interest to the award committee.

- Student may include any supporting documentation or materials, such as news media articles, letters, pamphlets, videotapes, audiotapes or similar items which provide evidence of their active involvement in leadership.

EVALUATION

The evaluation process will consist of a review of all submitted application materials by the Scholarship Review Committee. Finalists' applications will be forwarded to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) or CEO's designee, who may interview the finalists and select the scholarship recipients by May 7, 2019.

The application must include all of the following to be considered complete:
